

Evidence based Criteria

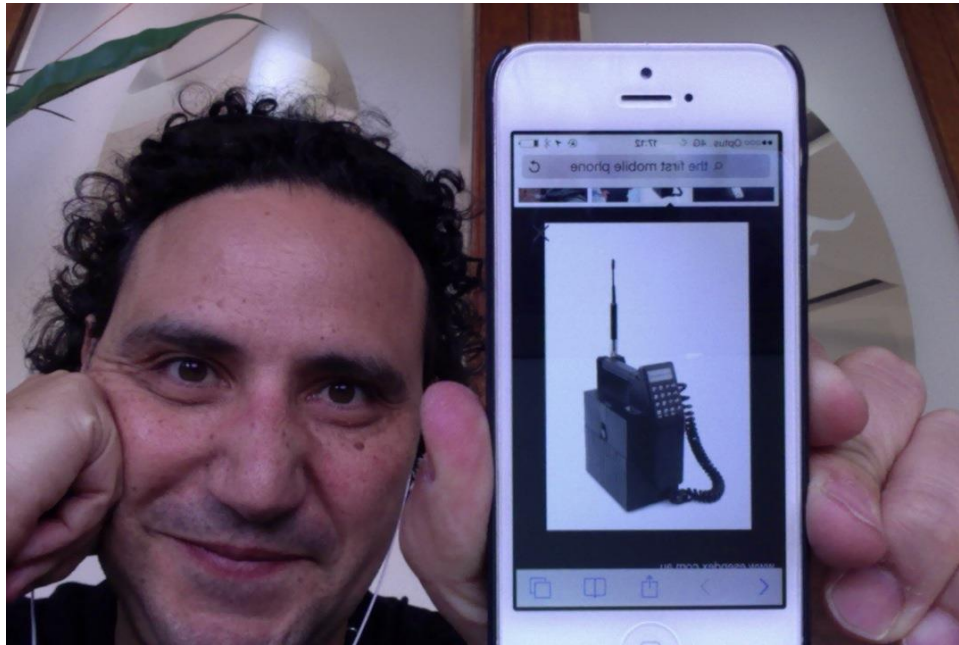

November 2014

Professor James Arvanitakis

The University of Western Sydney, Australia

E: j.arvanitakis@uws.edu.au T: 0438454127 Twitter: jarvanitakis

Can you believe...

2014 DASSH Conference...

How do we connect with first year
students?

Remember what it was like for us

How do we connect with first year
students?

Remember it was nothing like it was for us

What keeps you awake at night?

Retention
Online Study
Quality Assessment Fees
First-year High-Achieving Staffing Silos
Value
Accreditation

What keeps you awake at night?

Building study skills and 'graduate proficiencies'

A word cloud featuring various terms related to higher education. The word 'Study' is the largest and is circled in blue. Other prominent words include 'Retention', 'First-year', 'High-Achieving', 'Value', 'Accreditation', 'Staffing', 'Online', 'Quality Assessment fees', and 'Silos'.

Retention
Online
Study
Quality Assessment fees
High-Achieving
First-year
Silos
Staffing Value
Accreditation

What evidence did I use...
(apart from SFUs/SFTs)

What do you want to do?

How do you want do it?

How do you measure it?

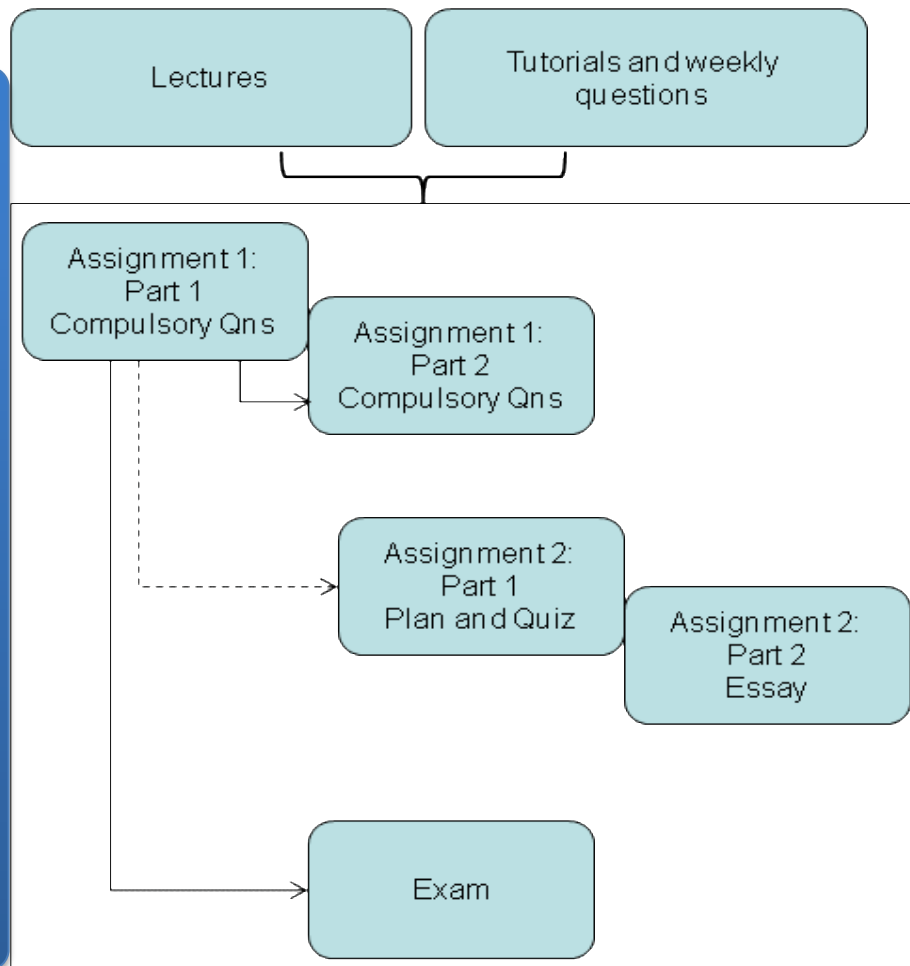

1. Citizen Scholar

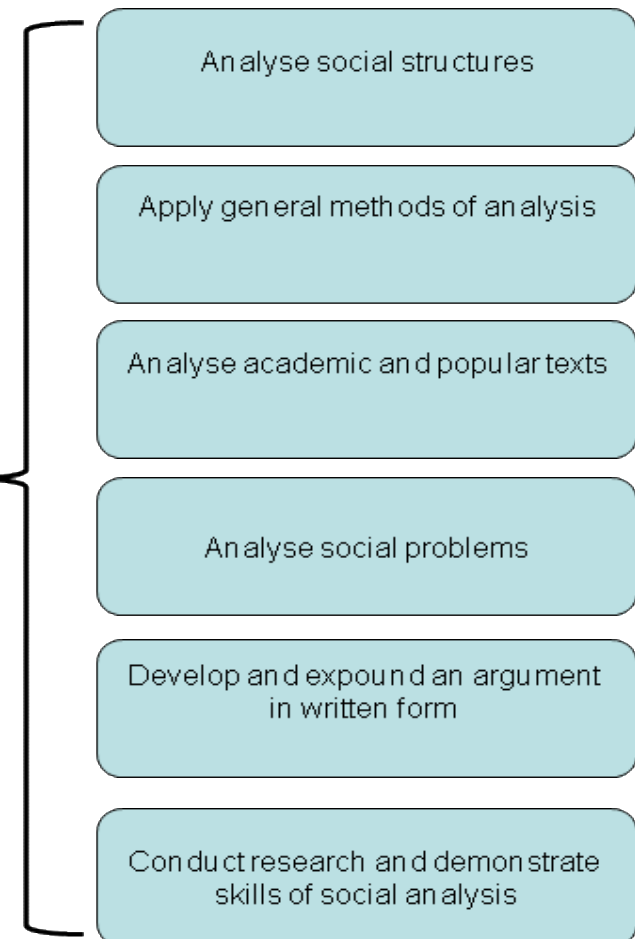

2. Academic Literacy

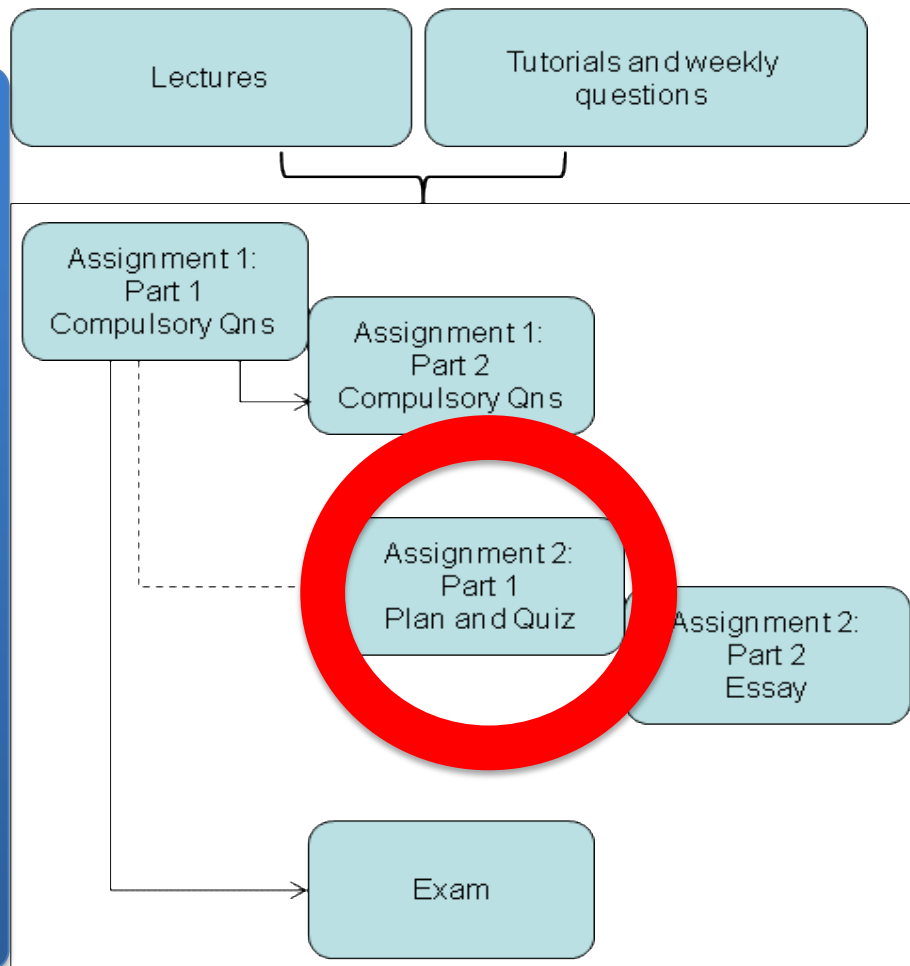

Assignments (what you need to do)

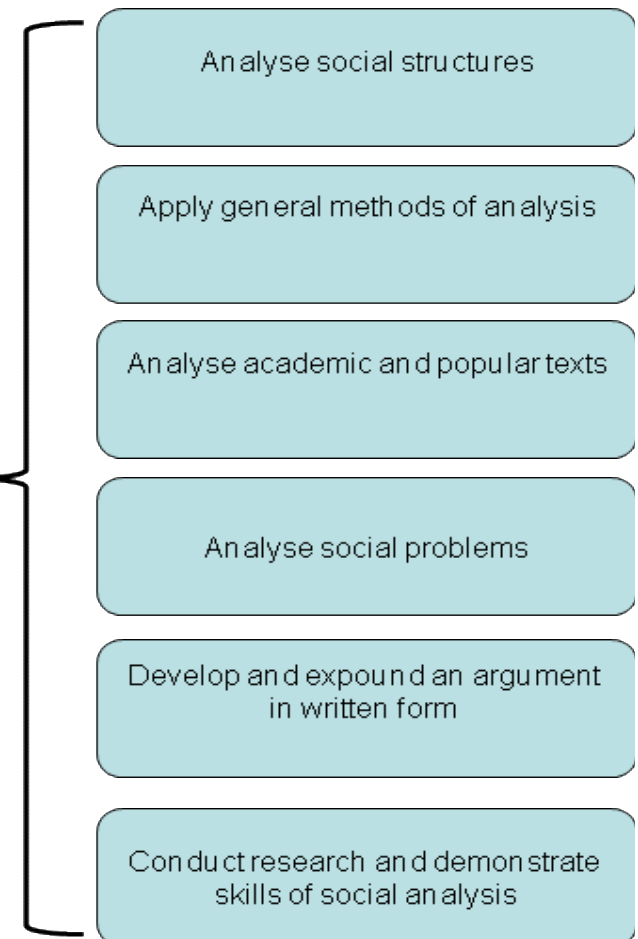

Learning outcomes (why you are doing it)

Assignments (what you need to do)

Learning outcomes (why you are doing it)

-
- Me: You have copied this word for word?
 - Student: Yes. You wrote the textbook so I thought I would show you I read it!

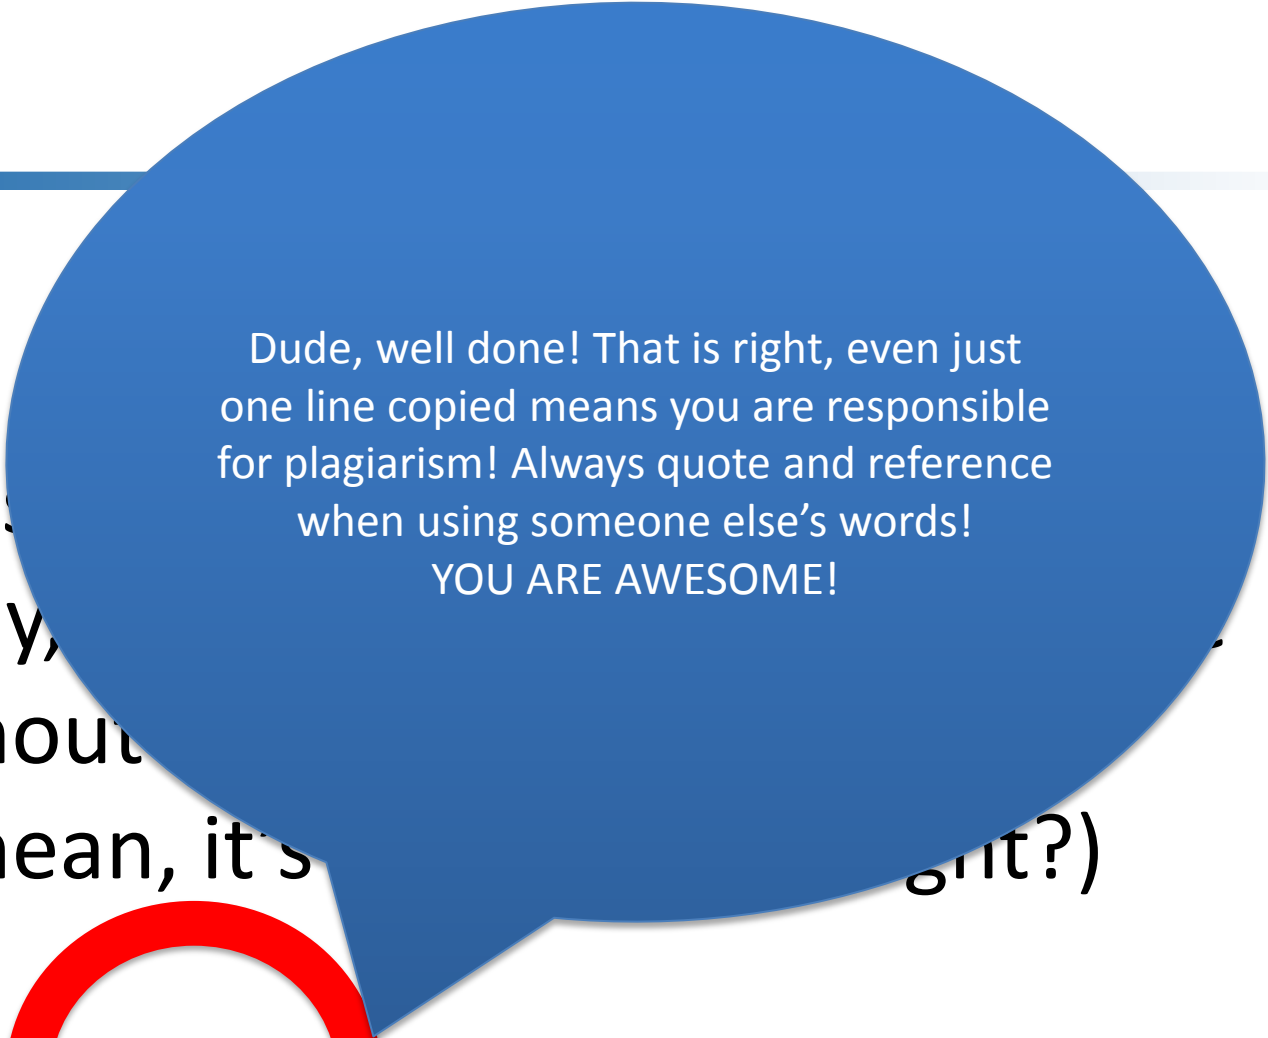

Question 2: If you are writing a 1500 word essay, it is ok to copy one single line without referencing?
(I mean, it's only one line right?)

True/False

Question 2: If you are writing a 1500 word essay, it is ok to copy one single line without referencing?
(I mean, it's only one line right?)

True False

Dude, well done! That is right, even just one line copied means you are responsible for plagiarism! Always quote and reference when using someone else's words!
YOU ARE AWESOME!

Quest
essay, without (I mean, it's word

right?)

True False

Dude! NO!!!!!!!!!!

Remember in class we discussed that when you use someone else's words, you always need to tell us whose words they are and where you got them from!
No dramas... try again!

a 1500 word
single line

W

(I mean, someone like right?)

True/false

3. Surplus model

THANK YOU...